

Allow me to introduce myself . . . Member Spotlight Section

Hi, my name is: Hannah Gregory

And this is what I do: I help people find a place for their passions! As a coordinator with the Senior Corps RSVP (Retired and Senior Volunteer Program) I collaborate with volunteers who are 55+ and nonprofit organizations to merge passions, skills, and interests with meaningful volunteer opportunities. I also coordinate the Volunteers of America Grocery Shopping Program which utilizes volunteers to call, shop, and deliver groceries to home bound seniors and individuals with disabilities.

I would love some help with: Recruitment/advertisement tools and tactics for better volunteer attendance at events.

My special talents or skills include: I have a skill for teaching someone something new! As a former back country guide and tennis coach I have gained a lot of experience (and patience) working with beginners.

Right now, I am reading: The Real Thing by Ellen McCarthy

Something that brings me daily Joy is: coffee, sunshine, and post-work walks with my fiance

February's Rotating Question: If I had a day to play hooky from work, I would: I would start my day going for a hike, then stop by the dog park, and end the day at one of Fort Collins' amazing breweries!
