

Allow me to introduce myself . . . Member Spotlight Section

Hi, my name is: Lydia Garmaier

And this is what I do: I'm the Director of Visitor Services and Events at the Clyfford Still Museum. I oversee the Volunteer Program, manage the Visitor Services team, manage the bookstore and run the Rental Program!!

I would love some help with: learning to balance work life and my private life.

My special talents or skills include: I was an opera singer and know all about classical music. I'm also super organized, which helps me with all of the things that I'm charged to do at the museum.

Right now, I am reading: Moby Dick!! It's about time I read this American classic.

Something that brings me daily Joy is: Breakfast with my husband, going for a walk and listening to music.

If I had a day to play hooky from work, I would: Drive up to Tallgrass spa to get a massage and then spend the day in the mountains.
